

It's Your Back, Don't Break It

This program deals with the issue of back injuries and how they can be prevented in the home health environment. Home care settings and specific situations are covered as well as the particular hazards to providing care inside the patient's home. This video will help your providers prevent injuries by giving them knowledge of how the back works and concrete examples on how to deal with activities that put stress on the back.

(20 min) DuPont #26-HC29-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Bloodborne Pathogens in Home Health Environment

Instructs home health providers on how to prevent being exposed to bloodborne pathogens by minimizing contact with blood and other bodily fluids - regardless of their specific duties in the home. Outlines the precautions to take to ensure safety on the job.

- Workplace transmission
- Standard precautions
- HBV vaccination
- Work practice controls
- Housekeeping and laundry.

(17 min) DuPont #26-HC41-DVD. $295

Personal Safety For Home Health Caregivers

This new program discusses how Home-healthcare workers can encounter dangerous situations; visiting patients and clients in remote or strange locations or dealing with difficult clients and family members. Personal Safety for Home Health Caregivers teaches your staff how to prepare and diffuse potentially dangerous situations that can put healthcare workers in harms way.

(17 min) DuPont #26-HC94-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Fall Prevention In Home Healthcare

Create awareness about some of the proactive screening tools and protective strategies you can use to prevent falls where they most often occur – in the patient's home.

- How and where falls happen
  - Conducting a fall risk assessment
  - Fall risk assessment scale
  - Physical assessment and fall prevention
  - Preventing accidental falls
  - Preventing unanticipated and anticipated falls
  - What to do if your patient falls
- (20 min) DuPont #26-HC80-DVD. $295.

Handbook Available.

Infection Control in Home Health: Winning the Battle

This video trains on all major issues of infection control in a straight-forward manner. Host explains how to win the war against infection on the home-front. How transmissions occur, various infectious agents, and susceptible hosts are covered. The video identifies the importance of infection control plans, and methods including standard precautions, transmission based precautions and safe work practices. Also describes how to properly care for the provider's bag and equipment with infection control in mind.

(20 min) DuPont #26-HC44-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Combative Residents: Mirror Their Reality

This important program discusses the problems, causes and various forms of combative behavior in long-term care facilities and helps you learn how to prevent combative behavior from happening to your employees.

(20 min) DuPont #26-HC40-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Violence in Home Healthcare: Be Smart, Be Safe

This video will help workers recognize and avoid potentially dangerous situations, identify actions they can take to de-escalate a violent situation and review many useful precautions that will reduce personal risk when they're in the field. The program covers the assault cycle: attack phase; recovery phase; post-crisis phase, as well as safety practices: pre-visit, post-visit and visit safety practices.

(22 min) DuPont #26-HC37-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Fire Safety in Home Health: Ten Burning Questions

This video provides a thorough review of basic fire tips, including fire prevention, fire extinguisher use and the RACE to safety. It answers the questions: why is fire safety important in Home Health and describes what providers can do to prevent fires from happening in their client's homes. Viewers will see a variety of problem situations and will learn how best to respond to them in an appropriate and diplomatic fashion.

(20 min) DuPont #26-HC47-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Home Health Safety Orientation

This important video will help your employees recognize the potential hazards of working in a home care setting. It provides important safety tips for home help providers and patients.

- What to look for when you go into a home
- Safe work practices
- Handling medical waste and equipment
- Importance of hand washing

An ideal orientation or refresher for home care workers.

(19 min) DuPont #26-HC27-DVD. $295
Handbook Available.

Elder Abuse & Neglect

This video program is designed to alert healthcare workers to the warning signs of elder abuse and how to report suspicious behavior. Includes discussion of subtle forms of abuse, which many workers may not realize. Handbook available.

(20 min) DuPont #26-HC52-DVD. $295.

Driving Safety Programs Available:
See Health & Safety Section